

ACCA Celebrates New Fellows

The next generation of ACCA fellows are welcomed to the fold

ACCA Ireland President, Brendan Foster hosted a reception for newly qualified FCCAs at the Shelbourne Hotel on 8 October. Fellowship is awarded to members after five years continuous membership and compliance with ACCA's CPD requirements. Members who meet these requirements receive a letter and certificate to welcome them to fellowship. No formal application is required. Over 40 FCCAs availed of this opportunity to meet the President, fellow members, Executive Committee members and ACCA Ireland staff. ACCA Global Deputy

President, Brendan Murtagh spoke to the group about the benefits of active membership and Kevin Kernan, Head of ACCA Ireland outlined the support available to members throughout the country.

01

02

03

04

05

06

01 (Left to right) Shay Dalton, Gemma Carroll, Patrick Corcoran and John Comerford 02 (Left to right) Tom Murray, Chairman of Practitioners Network, Jim Fleming and Robert Quinn 03 (Left to right) Thomas Stone, President, Leinster Members' Network, John Doris, Chairman, Business Leaders Forum and Brendan Murtagh, Global Deputy President ACCA 04 (Left to right) Iqtidar Syed, Orla Collins Vice President, ACCA Ireland and Karen Arnold 05 (Left to right) Jenny Downey, ACCA Ireland, Trayc Keevans, Premier and Beibhinn Coman, ACCA Ireland 06 (Left to right) Kevin Kernan, Head of ACCA Ireland, Brendan Murtagh, Global Deputy President ACCA and Brendan Foster, President, ACCA Ireland